NUMB. 3268

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22, 1744.

Hague, August 13.

THE Austrians have taken Care to make this Year memorable to us, throughout all succeeding Times; since, without Question, the Contributions they have imposed, will be felt by our Posterity. This Town is to pay 17,000 Florins by Way of Contribution; the Abbey of Neubourg 9200, Jews 15,000, the Jesuits 7000, the Canons Regular of St. Augustine 5000, the Chapter 4000, and, after we are to pay Ten per Cent. for what we shall be deemed worth, after raising these Contributions.

Hague, August 18. We have very melancholy Accounts from Alsace, of the Severities committed by the Austrians; but, on the other Hand, they tell us, that these are not Facts, but Misrepresentations. It is very hard to know what to believe; but one Thing is certain, with respect to Saverne, that the Houses and Furniture are entirely destroy'd, and nothing left in the Place that is worth taking; but however certain the Fact, there are very different Turns given to it by the opposite Parties. A French Gentleman now here, who was in the Place when it was taken, assures us, that the Austrians finding the Townsmen in Arms, were on the Point of putting them to the Sword; but that a certain General cried out, Take your Lives; we spare them out of Respect to the Cardinal de Rohan, your Master. Then turning about to his Irregular Troops, he said; Hark ye, Children, this same Town belongs, at present, neither to the King of France, nor to the Queen of Hungary, but to you; Fall too, and make the most of it.

Which short Grace was follow'd by as short a Meal; for in an Hour's Time there was not an Inhabitant had a Pennyworth left. The Austrians tell the Story thus. The French Troops that were in the Town capitulated, and by the first Article it was agreed, they should remain Prisoners of War; but while the rest of the Articles were adjusting, the Gate of the Town opening towards the Mountains, afforded the Troops Time to escape; so that before the Capitulation was sign'd, they were out of reach. The Croats and Pandours, however, suspecting what they were about, scaled the Walls; and finding the Trick that had been play'd them, plunder'd the Town to make themselves Satisfaction.

Hague, August 25. The Council of State assembled extraordinarily on the 22d, but we cannot learn what was the Subject of their Debates. M. Gallieres, Minister of this Republick to the Dyer of Ratsbon, arrived here lately, and it is said, has brought with him a full Account of the Intrigues carrying on at Frankfort. We have very different Accounts of the State of his most Christian Majesty's Health; according to M. Van they's Express from Paris, he is absolutely out of Danger; but according to private Letters from Metz, dated the 18th, it is said, that it was fear'd the Inflammation on his Brain, would be followed by an Imposthume; and that if he does recover, it will be entirely owing to the Strength of his Constitution; since, on the 14th, all his Physicians look'd upon his Case as desperate. We have certain Intelligence from Stockholm, that his Swedish Majesty, instead of reducing his Forces, as was expected, is determined to augment them, but with what View is uncertain; only this we are given to understand, that the Swedish Nation are to be at the Expence. They write from Moscow, that the English Minister has certainly concluded a Treaty, by which the Czarina is oblig'd to furnish the Queen of Hungary, and her Allies, with a great Body of Men; and it is said, that the Prussian Minister, at the Court of Berlin, will have Orders to demand a Passage from them thro' Part of the Russian Dominions.

I R E L A N D.

Dublin, August 14. The Privateer taken by the Greyhound Man of War, and brought into the River, proves to be the same, whose Crew, in the most cowardly and base Manner, kill'd the Pilots off Aldborough.

Last Saturday died of a Decay, Mr. Kelly Hunt, Sword Bearer to the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor of this City.

We hear from Cork, that on Wednesday last, the Old Noll, a Privateer of Liverpool, came in there, and brought with her, two Prizes; the one was the Thurlow Privateer of Liverpool, and the other a Martinico Man, outward-bound; which had been taken by the Thurlow some time before, but soon after met a French Privateer of 36 Guns and 300 Men, who took the Thurlow and her Prize, and put 40 of the Thurlow's Men on board his own Ship, and replac'd them with 40 French Men. In some time after, the English Prisoners espied a Sail, which they soon knew to be their Companion, the Old Noll; so began a Squabble with the Frenchmen to delay the working of the Ship, till the Old Noll came up, and retok her and her Prize; they afterwards fell in with the French Privateer, and after a smart Engagement, oblig'd her to sheer off.

We have also Advice from Cork, that on Friday Morning last, one of the Lieutenants belonging to the Old Noll, had a Dispute with one of her Sailors, and unhappily run him thro' the Body, and kill'd him; for which he is now in Custody.

A Woman was kill'd last Thursday by Lightning, at Bewley, near Drogheda; and her Husband and some of their Children were greatly hurt at the same Time.

HOME PORTS.

Dublin, August 14. Arrived, the Diligence, Gerrard, the Victor, Loroux, and the St. Louis, Demont, from Bordeaux; and the Nancy, Marshal, from Bergen. Sailed, the William and James, Woodcock, for Drontheim; and the Leonhart, Moraitry, for Rotterdam.

Deal, August 20. Wind W. N. W. Came down the Edinburgh Man of War, and remains with the Grafton, Kent, Lenox, and Gonderah Men of War, with the Outward-bound as per last. Arrived the Wolf Sloop from a Cruise, and the Dispatch Tender.

Gravesend, August 20. Passed by the Pamela, Morris, from Jamaica; the Elizabeth, McKenzie, from Carolina; and the Page, Collins, from Ostend.

L O N D O N.

They write from Warsaw, that since the Arrival of the Prussian Minister, several Councils of War have been held there; and that Orders have been transmitted to Dr. Hien of such Importance, as it was believed would determine the Fate of Things in Germany.

Our Advices from Nuremberg say, that all the Regular Troops which the Austrians had in Bavaria, are march'd into Bohemia; so that there is nothing now in that Electorate, but Militia and Irregular Troops.

Private Letters from the Army in Flanders say, that great Preparations are making for a very important Expedition; and that it is thought, the Confederates will speedily quit the Place of their present Encampment, in order to undertake a Siege of Consequence, that will force the Count Saxe from behind his Lines.

They write from Stockholm, that on the 3d Instant died there, M. Drake, President of the College of Commerce.

They write from Brussels, that the Count de Saxe had endeavour'd a second Time to surprize Oudenarde, but without Success; and that Duke Aremberg had reinforced the Garrison with two Battalions, and a small Party of Horse; it is added, that the Army of the Allies is in Possession of Orchies, in which Place was found a Magazine of Hay.

From Metz we learn, that Prince Charles of Lorraine has just made a Motion towards the Rhine; and that the French Army under M. Noailles and Coigni, together with the Imperialists under Count Seckendorff, were moving towards him, so that a Battle was hourly expected.

The Queen of Angris, Capt. Haufe, from Bourdeaux for Martinico, with Wine and Brandy, is taken by the Old Noll Privateer, and carried into Cork.

To-morrow the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, &c. will go, with the usual Formality, to proclaim Bartholomew Fair.

Yesterday Morning two old Houses fell down in Gardiner's Lane, Westminster; but they being uninhabited, no-body received any Damage.

Last Night there was a Committee of Council held at the Cockpit, Whitehall, on Affairs of great Importance.

Yesterday Morning the 14 Waiters that attended Vauxhall this Season (who had voluntarily enter'd on board the Anson Privateer) set out from thence, in order to go on board the said Ship; but in their Way to her, they were attack'd by a large Party belonging to a Man of War, who overpowering them, carry'd them all off, but not without much Mischief done.

Last Saturday died, after a tedious Indisposition, in the 75th Year of her Age, at her House at Wandsworth in Surrey, Mrs. Watkins, Relict of ——— Watkins, Esq; a Gentlewoman of great Charity.

On Monday the Coroner's Inquest finish'd their Enquiry relating to the Death of Mr. Pollson, who died in the Infirmary at Hyde Park Corner a few Days since, and brought in their Verdict Willful Murder.

Yesterday Edward Young (who lately kept a notorious Bawdy-House in Hanging Sword Alley) was committed to Newgate by Sir John Bernard, for breaking into the House of Mr. Thomas Burn, of Dove Court, Gutter Lane, and stealing 22 Pewter Plates.

As was likewise Mary Deal to Woodstreet Compter, for stealing 16 s. 6 d. in Money, and a great Quantity of Linen, and Wearing Apparel, the Property of Mrs. Anne Blunt, of Bowling-Alley, Whitecross-street; who then lay Speechless in Bed, when the above Prisoner, who was her Nurse, robbed her.

As were also Abraham Solomon, James Adams, Matthew Baxter, James Clark, Thomas Green, and Thomas Figg, to Bridewell, for stealing Sugar and Tobacco on the Custom-House Keys.

From the London Gazette.

Topsam, August 18. We have this Morning received a certain Account, by an Officer belonging to the Saltash Privateer, Capt. Huddy, that the said Privateer is come into Torbay from a Cruise of two Months; and has brought in with her a Prize which she had taken, being a Ship of near 600 Tons, from Guiney; she hath 16 Carriage and eight Swivel Guns, 51 Men; her Loading is 450 Tons of Gum, and other valuable Things, and computed to be worth 100,000l. Sterling. The Captain of the Guinea Ship was kill'd in the Action, which held near five Hours.

Extract of a Letter to the Postmaster-General, from the Postmaster of Bristol, August 20, 1744.

'The Prince Charles Privateer is this Morning arrived with two Prizes, that came from Mississippi, and said to be of considerable Value. There are likewise two more brought in this Morning by the Mediterranean and Queen of Hungary Privateers; one from St. Domingo, and the other from Greenland, who had taken three Whales.'

V. THE HISTORY of the WORLD. By Sir WALTER RALEIGH, Knt. The Eleventh Edition. In Two Volumes Folio, printed from a Copy revised by the Author, with his Effigies, from an original Painting, curiously engraved by Mr. VERTUE.

To which is prefixed the LIFE of the Author, newly compiled from Materials more ample and authentic than have yet been published. By Mr. OLDYS.

Sir WALTER RALEIGH'S History of the World is a Work of so vast a Compass, such endless Variety, that no Genius, but one adventurous at his own, durst have undertaken that great Design. I do not apprehend any great Difficulty in collecting and common-placing an Universal History from the whole Body of Historians; that is nothing but mechanic Labour. But to digest the several Authors in his Mind, to take in all their Majesty, Strength, and Beauty, to raise the Spirit of meane Historians, and to equal all the Excellencies of the best, is Sir Walter's peculiar Praise. His Style is the most perfect, the happiest, and most beautiful, of the Age
he wrote in; majestic, clear, and manly; and he appears every where so superior, rather than unequal to his Subject, that the Spirit of Rome and Athens seems to be breathed into his Work.

such entire Satisfaction to the Nobility and Gentry, for above Twenty Years past, by its really exceeding all other Things, and formerly invented or lately contrived for these Purposes.

nothing else will, and not only takes it away in a Moment, but absolutely cures the TOOTH-ACH, so as certainly to prevent its white, assuredly softens those that are loose, and finally preserves the Teeth from growing rotten, and those of the the Character here given of it, literally, and is every day as Persons (innumerable have experienced).

But these inimitable Qualities, and (what is more) Virtues, by which it has justly gain'd such an universal and unparallel'd great character, have occasion'd, as usual in such cases, various frequent Endeavours to mimic it, (some under the same Name, and in the very Words of this Advertisement, and others under other Names; be careful, therefore, to have the right, which may be infallibly relied upon, and which is to be had only,

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the PALSY,

or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES

PALSIES, and PARALYTIC DISORDERS so frequent of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This casioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much in concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels, as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients that have all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Relaxation of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Study, or any other Cause, for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates
the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation thru' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be
